

Bon Iver - 33 ?GOD?

Tom: A

[INTRO]

A Dbm A Dbm

(When we leave this room it's gone)

[VERSE]

A

Dbm

Is the company stalling? We had what we wanted: your eyes

(When we leave this room it's gone) With no word from the former

I'd be happy as hell, if you stayed for tea (I know so well that this is all there is)

This is how we grow now, woman a child ignored

These will just be places to me now The foreman is down (When we leave this room it's gone)

We're rising the stairs

A Dbm
We find God and religions too

[VERSE]

A

Dbm
Staying at the Ace Hotel If the calm would allow Then I would just be floating to you now

A
It would make me pass to let it pass on I'm climbing the dash, A that skin

[INTERLUDE]

Dbm A

E

A E
(Here in this room, this narrow room where life began when we were young last night)

[VERSE]

E

Well we walked up on that bolt in the street

After you tied me in in the driveway of the apartment of his bede

A
Sent your sister home in a cab Said I woulda walked across any thousand lands (No not really if you can't)

Dbm
I didn't need you that night Not gonna need you anytime Was gonna take it as it goes

A
I could go forward in the light Well I better fold my clothes (I'll be looking through your eyes)

Dbm
(I'll be looking through your eyes) All my goodness

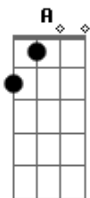

A
(I'll be looking through your eyes)

Dbm
(I'll be looking through your eyes) All my goodness to show

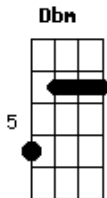

A
(Why are you so far from saving me?)

Dbm
(Why are you so far from saving me?)
