Bon Iver - Roslyn

```
Bones, blood and teeth erode
                                                                                                                                                                                                                               Am C F Am C
                                            tom:
                                           Bbm (forma dos acordes no tom de Am )
                                                                                                                                                                               They will be crashing low
Capostraste na lª casa
                                                                                                                                                                                 Dm G Dm Am F
Intro: F G F Am C F Am C
Dm G Dm Am
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  Dm F
                                                                                                                                                                               Wings wouldn't help you
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Dm Am C F
                                                                                                                                                                               C United as a constraint of the constraint of th
                                                                                                                                                                               C Dm G
Down fills the ground, gravity smiled
F
            Up with your turret
                                              Am C
                                                                        FCFC
Aren't we just terrified?
                                                                                                                                                                               [Terceira Parte]
 Dm G Dm Am
F
                                                                                                                                                                               F
          Shale, screen your worry
Am C
                                                                                                                                                                                         You barely are blinking
                                                                                    FCFC
                                                                                                                                                                                                                             Am C
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         F Am C
                                                                                                                                                                               Wagging your face around
From what you won't ever find
 Dm G Dm Am
                                                                                                                                                                                 Dm G Dm Am Am C
C
                                              Dm
                                                                                                                                                                               F.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Am C
Don't let it fool you
                                                                                                                                                                                            When'd this just become a mortal home? Now
                                                                                                                                                                                 F G F Am C
                                          Dm Am C F
C
Don't let it fool you down
                                                                                                                                                                                 Dm G Dm Am
                                            Dm
                                                                               G Am C
                           С
Dancing around, folds in her gown
                                                                                                                                                                               Won't, won't, won't, won't
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            Am C
                                                                                                                                                                               Dm
[Segunda Parte]
                                                                                                                                                                               Won't let you talk me
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      Am C
                                                                                                                                                                               С
F
                                                                                                                                                                               Won't let you talk me
          Sea and the rock below
                                                                                                                                                                               Am C F
                                               Am C F Am C
                                                                                                                                                                               Down
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 Dm Am
Cocked to the undertow
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     G
 Dm G Dm Am
                                                                                                                                                                               Will pull it taut, nothing let out
F
Acordes
                G
                                                     Bbn
                                                                                          An
                                                                                                                                                                                                         Dn
```

