

Bon Jovi - I Wrote You a Song

tom:
Intro: D G D G

[Primeira Parte]

When these hands won't strum and I can't Find the chords

And my voice don't wanna sing

When my feet say dance, but I can't find
The floor

Will you just lie here with me?

Will your eyes catch mine, then linger too
Long?

Will you still let me bring you your tea?

When your mind starts to wander, can I
Come along?

Is there someplace that you'd rather be?

[Refrão]

I wrote you a song, almost afraid to sing
It

How could it ever be beautiful enough?

I can't give you the ocean or the sky so
Blue

The wonders of th? world, they don't
Compare to you

I did the only thing I know how to do

[Post-Refrão]

I wrot? you a song
I wrote you a song

[Segunda Parte]

If I brought you flowers, in a couple of Days

The pedals would all fall away

To give you forever, for worse or for Better

Something that won't ever fade

I wrote you a song, now that it's done

Acordes

It's simple what I want to say

This scribbled love letter, we wrote it
Together

I promise my heart's on the page

[Refrão]

I wrote you a song, almost afraid to sing
It

How could it ever be beautiful enough?

I can't give you the ocean or the sky so
Blue

The wonders of th? world, they don't
Compare to you

I did the only thing I know how to do

[Post-Refrão]

I wrot? you a song
I wrote you a song

(D G A)
(D G A)

[Ponte]

I wrote you a song, now that it's done

It's simple what I want to say

[Refrão]

I wrote you a song, almost afraid to sing It

How could it ever be beautiful enough?

I can't give you the ocean or the sky so
Blue

The wonders of th? world, they don't
Compare to you

I did the only thing I know how to do

[Post-Refrão]

I wrot? you a song
I wrote you a song
I wrote you a song