

Bon Jovi - Living Proof

tom:
Intro: Am C D A
Am C D
Am C D

[Primeira Parte]

Does the sun still shine on a
Dead-end street?
Will a rose still grow out of broken
Concrete?
Is there anything left for a sinner
Like me?

[Refrão]

I'm tired of talking 'bout someday
All that we've been given are the Dark days
Nothing is forgiven, it's the hard
Way
Right or wrong
I'm tired of talking 'bout somehow
Wake up and it's welcome to your Breakdown
( Em )
This family's tree got nothing left
To prove now
( F G Am )
C D Am C D
Me and you, we're the living proof

[Segunda Parte]

Close your eyes and tell me what you
Think you see
Is faith and hope enough to make a
Fool believe
Is there anything left for a sinner
Like me?

[Refrão]

I'm tired of talking 'bout someday

[Ponte]

First the son becomes a father
Then the father is a son
It's a never-ending circle
And the circle's never done
This love will last forever
We're not footprints in the sand
It's time to understand
