

Bon Jovi - Saturday Night Gave Me a Sunday Morning

Tom: C
 C
 I was living my life like a long lost weekend
 G
 Never felt nothing, jumping right into the deep end
 Am
 I wasn't missing nothing that was ever worth getting
 F
 Never hung around enough to regret it

C
 He walked into the late bar just in time
 G
 To hand me my excuses with a chance in rhyme
 Am
 Shoes and attitude were stacked way up high
 F
 I knew right then you were the story of my life

C
 Oh Saturday night gave me Sunday morning
 G
 Opened my eyes, now it's a new day dawning
 Am
 I think I might have pushed my luck a time or two
 F
 Everything about us is what gets me through

C
 I never thought I'd hear the church bells ringing
 G
 I never learned the song was hard for singing
 Am
 No regrets, I took the step and I'm still falling
 F C
 Saturday nights gave me Sunday morning, yeah

C
 Driving down a street that's only going one way
 G
 Everyday starts feeling like a month of Mondays
 Am
 Guess you know, I still got something left to prove
 F
 I know what it takes to get back to you

C

Oh Saturday night gave me Sunday morning

 F D
 Saturday nights gave me Sunday morning, yeah

D
 Remember those nights staring out at
 A
 The last broken town without feeling the same
 Bm
 Making up words to our favourite songs
 G
 Laughing loud with those drinks in our hands
 D
 And as that boy put his head on her shoulder
 She pulled him tight to get a bit closer
 Bm
 And as the world just disappeared
 G
 You whispered in my ear

C
 Oh Saturday night gave me Sunday morning
 G
 Opened my eyes, now it's a new day dawning
 Am
 I think I might have pushed my luck a time or two
 F
 Everything about us is what gets me through

 I never thought I'd hear the church bells ringing
