

Bonfire - Southern Winds

tom:

Intro: G Cadd9 Am C D
Em C D

Dreamin' by the fire at the Gulf of Mexico
Somebody's playin' a lovesong
With a six string homesick tone
Memories of summer
the first time we made love
And a promise left unspoken
I saw in a shooting star

The Southern wind was blowin' as if he wants to say
The words I whispered in my heart
Only yesterday

You're my only one my risin' sun
You're the air I wanna breathe
Girl you're everything I need
My shining star that's what you are
And as long my heart will beat
You'll be everything everything I need

The fire is still burning
I was humming to the song
Couldn't think of all the words
So I made them up my own
Like a secret door that opens these words just set me free
And the promise left unspoken was the owner of the key Oh the Southern wind keep blowin' please carry me back home There's somebody who is waiting and I've gotta let her know

You're my only one my risin' sun
You're the air I wanna breathe
Girl you're everything I need
My shining star that's what you are
And as long my heart will beat
You'll be everything everything I need

And when Southern Winds are blowin' they might even bring some rain
Em C
But the promise left unspoken will always be the same D
Always be the same

You're my only one my risin' sun
You're the air I wanna breathe
Girl you're everything I need
My shining star that's what you are
And as long my heart will beat
You'll be everything everything I need
Wohh wohh, uhh uhh
Like the Southern Winds
My shining star that's what you are
And as long my heart will beat
You'll be everything everything I need
