

Boy And Bear - Party Time Believer

Tom: G
Intro: Bm Gbm E

[Verso 1]

B We've run out of reasons Gbm
D A Losing sight of what it's supposed to be
B Gbm D A A part time believer to truth
B Gbm Somehow conceded
D A B This sense of self evasive solitude
Gbm D A It means way too much to me

[Pré-Refrão]

E And I hope you know how lucky you are

[Refrão]

D A E Oh, I remember sitting back on my balcony
D A E I was a-listening to the Rolling Stones
D A E See I was waiting for my dad to come home from work
D A E So I could show him all the chords that I've learned
D A E See I was under the impression I was gonna lead
D A E Some kind of simple understated life
D A E But now I'm living in the shadows of a memory
D A E And I hope so, man I hope so, oh oh oh

(Bm Gbm E)

[Verso 2]

B Gbm It's been way too long

D A B It seems that I can celebrate my meaning
Gbm D A For I am too young, too warm
B Gbm The fib while it leans
D A It pulls and it pushes me
B Gbm D A Till I wither, till I wither, till I wither

[Pré-Refrão]

E And I hope you know how lucky you are

[Refrão]

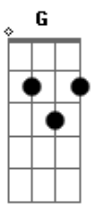

D A E Oh, I remember sitting back on my balcony
D A E I was a-listening to the Rolling Stones
D A E See I was waiting for my dad to come home from work
D A E So I could show him all the chords that I've learned
D A E See I was under the impression I was gonna lead
D A E Some kind of simple understated life
D A E But now I'm living in the shadows of a memory
D A E And I hope so, man I hope so, oh oh oh

[Ponte]

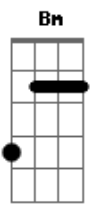

Bm D No, you dare
A Bm You run like a lion to defend your senses
Bm D A Bm Even though it seems it cuts to the core
Bm Gbm E It's not the same my friend no more

[Final] Bm Gbm E
