

Boy - Boris

Tom: A

(com acordes na forma de Intro:)

Verse 1:

You said: Baby, come up to the office you sang at my party I owe you some money You owe me your lips I'm gonna give tips and I heard your boyfriend is out of town

Baby aren't you hungry? I could feed you cookies, I could get my car keys

Oh what a cute dress, but right now it's useless I heard your boyfriend is out of town

Chorus 1:

I said you~ should get out of town too

I said you~ should get out of town too

Verse 2:

(Same as in Verse 1 here)

You said: Baby, I know you like me
You know that we want us, really, I'm serious
We could have good fun and we're only young once
And I heard your boyfriend is out of town

Baby where are you going?
Don't be such a diva, you can't just leave now
Come back, don't bore me, you can't just ignore me.
Isn't your boyfriend out of town? I said yes.

Chorus 2:

(Same as in Chorus 1 here)

And you~ should get out of town too
I said you~ should get out of town too
I said you~ should get out of town too
I said you, you~ should get out of town too

Solo:

(This is actually a cello solo but I tabbed it for the guitar)

Chorus 3:

(Same as in Chorus 1, 2 here)

I said you~ should get out of town too
I said you~ should get out of town, out of town, out of town
I said you, you, you, you should get out of town too~
I said you, you you should get out of town too

Verse 3:

(No playing)

I said: Baby, come up to the office
You sang at my party I owe you some money
You owe me your lips I'm gonna give tips
And I heard your boyfriend is out of town
