

Boy - Waitress

tom:

Am
They walk in and sit down
G Em
With their mood of the day
Am C
They read books over tea
G Em Am
They give tips when they pay
C G
Butter and bread, diet Coke and cake
C G
She takes notes, she makes no mistakes

F Em
Well daylight is fadin'
Am
While traders are tradin'
F
While the jukebox is playin'
G
The lovers are datin'
G C
The waitress is waitin'

C G
For a thing to explode
G
For a light to go on
F Dm
For some sign to show
Dm C
Her time has yet to come
C G
She's countin' the days
G F
Until real life arrives
F Dm
She's countin': two three four five

Am C
And every minute feels
G Em
Just like the one before
Am C

No surprise, no twist
G Em
She wants so much more

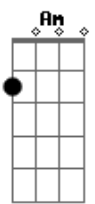

F Em
Well daylight is fadin'
Am
While traders are tradin'
F
While the jukebox is playin'
G
The lovers are datin'
G F
The waitress is waitin'

F F Em Am
F F G Em

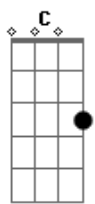

C G
For a thing to explode
G
For a light to go on
F
For some sign to show
Dm
Her best has yet to come
C G
She's countin' the days
G F
Until real life arrives
F Dm
She's countin': two three four five
C build up over bridge

C G
When will that thing explode
G F
When will that light go on
F Dm
Just to assure her she's not wrong
C G
She's countin' the days
G F
Until real life arrives
F Dm
She's countin', from nine to five
F Dm
She's countin': two three four five C
