[Primeira Parte]

I'm not a psycho, but I might go crazy
 Writing typos, they ask, "Why so shaky?"
 Missing my coat, all this pressure hitting my head
 I'm on a tightrope, can't hit the high notes
 Baby, I need Ibuprofen
 I know that you'll take me back home
 Don't leave me alone, I need a friend

[Pré-Refrão]

I don't care what you think of me
 I just want to be on top
 I'm not stressed that you've never heard of me

You'll be listening non-stop

[Refrão]

Hop off the highway
 I've been having migraines
 I've been waiting for a while to have it my way
 Oof, just a boy acting like a goof
 I've got fifty-five voices saying
 I gotta do what they all say

Got me looking sideways
 I don't wanna write a song about a h?artbreak
 Oof, just a boy acting like a fool
 Got a hundred things I'd rath?r do

(E B Eb Abm Gb)

[Segunda Parte]

I don't like when they try controlling me
 The thoughts I fight, they can get a little frightening
 But I don't mind, If it means I get to be free
 I speak my mind, loud when I wanna be up all night
 I can tell, they're getting sick of me
 But I don't mind, If it means I get to be me

[Pré-Refrão]

I don't care what you think of me
 I just want to be on top

I'm not stressed that you've never heard of me

You'll be listening non-stop

[Terceira Parte]

I just wanna run around, but what do I know?
 Like I said, before I'm missing all these high notes
 I just wanna live a little, before I go
 I don't wanna lie, low
 Yeah, I know, 'bout subliminal messages
 They're sending me, on how to leave a legacy
 It's harder when you're farther and they're never letting Constantly
 And speaking over what you see
 It's like they're coming after me
 Can someone teach me how to breathe?
 Tell me, what I need

[Pré-Refrão]
