         [Primeira Parte]

 Ebm
Her laughter's for another
                  Bbm
Her emotions are disguised
 B
Her makeup doesn't cover
          Gb          Bb
What I see behind her eyes
 Ebm                     Bbm
Yes, I know that nothing's wrong
                          B
But what's the harm in asking why?
                  Gb
I know that you're not tired
          Bbm
Where the xxxx were you tonight?

 [Pré-Refrão]

 Ebm
Baby, let me be
Bbm
Take my noose and set me free
Light my home on fire
          Gb         Bb
Take me higher than I wanna be
Ebm
Baby, on my knees
Bbm
Beggin' for the sweet release
 B                    Gb           Bb
Let me hear the choir full of liars, tell them I want peace

 [Refrão]

 B               Gb
I wish I wasn't problematic
              Bbm
I'm semi-automatic
                 Ebm
I'm trying not to panic
Db
Panic
 B               Gb
I'm burning Bridges into ashes
                Bbm
Light them up like matches
                 Ebm
How could you understand it
 Db

 [Segunda Parte]

 Ebm                 Bbm
  This morning she skipped breakfast
Said, she was running late
              Gb
Her actions turning reckless
    Bbm           Ebm
She began making mistakes
                     Bbm
And I noticed something off
'Bout her cadence yesterday
              Gb
She didn't even notice
        -Nc-
That she called me by his name

 [Terceira Parte]

 Ebm
Why did you love me so?
Bbm
Watch me as I let you go
 B                        Gb
Told you that I'm better off alone
              Bbm
Without you in my home
Ebm
I let you in my heart
Bbm
Let you back into my arms
 B
Fool for thinking we could make it
Gb            Bb
Faking every single part
      Ebm
I thought that maybe you could be
      Bbm
The final xxxxing remedy
      B
The one to pull me out
          Gb           Bb
If I were ever stuck inside a dream
          Ebm
I'm looking back at times we had
          Bbm
The things we did and things we can't
```

How could you stab me in the back
