

BoyWithUke - Rockstar

tom:
G [Intro] G Em G Em

[Primeira Parte]

I just wanna be an all-star, run five hundred yards

Rockstar life, buying luxury cars

I want a Bentley, want a nice Porsche

I want a whip with butterfly doors

Grammy and a billion views

Enough money to afford nice shoes

Girlfriends and a golden goose and a golden tooth

Man, what about you?

[Refrão]

I just wanna go back to my room
I don't want the fame, I just want you

[Segunda Parte]

I wish I was famous, nobody knows me

I do the same shit, do what they tell me

I had dreams that I'm livin' in the hills

I'm chillin' with my homie Rick Ross, payin' bills

They call me faceless, I need a facelift

Radio stations hate on my playlist

One day, I'ma shoot a shot at Mars

Fall into its orbit, let me fall into your arms

[Refrão]

I just wanna go back to my room

I don't want the fame, I just want you
I just wanna go back to my room, my room
I don't want the fame, I just want you, want you

[Ponte]

And I've tri?d doin' all that I can
I'll walk to Japan

If it means that I won't fall

Off, bite my own tongue just to sav?

All the numbers I made

I feed it like an animal

[Pré-Refrão]

Popped off, full of all this love (I don't wanna)
Go, go, though it won't take much (I don't wanna)
Change clothes since we're so damn close (I just wanna)
Go home, baby, fuck this show

[Refrão]

I just wanna go back to my room, my room
I don't want the fame, I just want you, want you
I just wanna go back to my room, my room
I don't want the fame, I just want you, want you

[Final]

Forget everything I ever wanted
All I want is to see your eyes
Feel the weight of the stones in my pockets
I just want you to know I'm fine
