

Brandi Carlile - Someday Never Comes

tom:

G

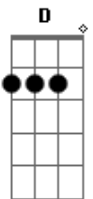

Dear Love, I miss you much
D
I miss your smile, and I miss your touch
C
But I found a place where I can erase my past
G
Maybe someday when you're old and gray
D
And your hair falls out and your tattoos fade
C
You might see my standing, hat in hand
Am C G D
I have to go away, I've got no reason to stay here
Am C
You said someday you'll change
G D
But even a fool would tell you
C
Someday never comes
G
You built your rooms, you built your walls
D
You kept me outside, of it all
C

I got tired of you, what's a girl to do
G
Maybe someday if we stay this way
D
And you see my face in a different place
C
You'll remember when
C
You're going to thank me then
Am C G D
I have to go away, I've got no reason to stay here
Am C
You said someday you'll change
G D
But even a fool would tell you
C
Someday never comes
C
( G D C )
Am C G D
I have to go away, I've got no reason to stay here
Am C
You said someday you'll change
G D
But even a fool would tell you
C
Someday never comes
