Intro:                                                Chorus/Lead-in I w/lyrics:
                                                         And when my love for life is running dry,
                                                         You'll come and pour yourself on me.
Lead-in I:                         Lead-in II:
                                                      Play:
                                                      Intro: /Lead-in II w/ lyrics:
Play:                                                    If a man could be two places at one time
Intro: /Lead-in I no lyrics                              I'd be with you,
Intro: /Lead-in II TWICE w/ lyrics:                      Tomorrow and today,
     If a picture paints a thousand words,               Beside you all the way.
     Then why can't I paint you?
     The words will never show                           If the world should stop revolving
     The you I've come to know.                          Spinning slowly down to die,
                                                         I'd spend the end with you,
     If a face could launch a thousand ships,            And when the world was through,
     Then where am I to go?
     There's no one home but you,                     Play:
     You're all thats left me to.  <---thats a guess on the Chorusnding (Instead of Lead-in I) w/ Lyrics:
lyrics folks!                                            Then one by one,
                                                         The stars would all go out,
chorus:                                                  Then you and I,
                                                         Would simply
                                                      Ending:                           \slowing down
