If a picture paints a thousand words
     A          A7      D
Then why can't I paint you?
    Dm               A         Dm               E
The words will never show, the you I've come to know

     A                   A7
If a face could launch a thousand ships
     A         A7   D
Then where am I to go?
        Dm              A
There's no one home but you
       Dm                 E
You're all that's left me too

    Gbm     Dbm      Gbm             Bm
And when my love for life is running dry

    Dbm      Gb       Bm      E
You come and pour yourself on me

     A                A7             A
If a man could be two places, at one time
    A7      D
I'd be with you
Dm              A      Dm               E
Tomorrow and today, beside you all the way

       A                   A7       A        A7             D
If the world should stop revolving, spinning slowly down to die
    Dm                  A
I'd spend the end with you
    Dm                  E
And when the world was through

     Gbm    Dbm      Gbm                Bm
Then one by one, the stars would all go out
     Dbm     Gb       Bm       E   A
Then you and I would simply fly a way
