

Brian Fallon - Forget Me Not

Tom: G

Intro:

[Verso 1]

D Bm
Stacy, I'd like to take you to a movie
G
In a world without a death wish
D A
On a night under the fireworks in heaven
D
Oh but Stacy
Bm
Baby, you can take me anywhere
G
Because I get a lot of low downs
D A
So just put me in the cold ground and visit

[Pré-Refrão]

G
Oh, but what if
A
What if my soul was still trembling?

[Refrão]

D A
Would you put your black dress on and visit my bones?
Bm G
And bring my Football top and a scarf for the cold
D A
Playing melancholy songs that somehow made us
G A
Feel a whole lot better
D A
Well, I waited on the kingdom come and the trumpet blow
Bm G
In the cold, hard ground there's some letters you wrote
D A G
Would I get any rest from the wreck that I was with the living?
A D
Or would you just go on?

[Verso 2]

D Bm
Stacy, I never thought I'd miss the small talk
G
I never knew the gift the day was
D
I just used to hear the time clock
N.C.
Whistle stop
N.C.
Sleep and get back up again
D Bm
Stacy, I never thought I'd miss the hard love
G
I wish I took the time to miss you
D A
While we were sitting only right there under heaven

[Pré-Refrão]

G
Oh, but what if
A
What if my soul was still trembling?

[Refrão]

D A
Would you put your black dress on and visit my bones?

Bm G
And bring my Football top and a scarf for the cold
D A
Playing melancholy songs that somehow made us
G A
Feel a whole lot better
D A
Well, I waited on the kingdom come and the trumpet blow
Bm G
In the cold, hard ground there's some letters you wrote
D A G
Would I get any rest from the wreck that I was with the living?
A D
Or would you just go on?

[Ponte]

G
Could you promise me something if you find someone?
D
That you'll forget me not, never feel too much
G D A
Even if they do all the things that I couldn't do for you
G
And I'll promise you something if I find someone
D
That I'll forget you not, never feel too much
G D A
Even if they do all the things that I couldn't do for you

[Pré-Refrão]

G
Oh, but what if
A
What if my soul was still trembling?

[Refrão]

D A
And I would put my black suit on and visit your bones
Bm G
And bring a Football top and a play that you wrote
D A
And an English song by a band that you love
G A
Here comes the sun, little darling (yeah!)
D A
And the kingdom come and the trumpet blow
Bm G
In the cold, hard ground there's some letters you wrote
D A G
Would you get any rest from the wreck that I was with the living?
A D
Or would you just go on?

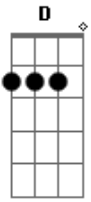

[Refrão]

D A
Would you put your black dress on and visit my bones?
Bm G
And bring my Football top and a scarf for the cold (Please forget me not)
D A
Playing melancholy songs that somehow made us
G A
Feel a whole lot better (Would you just go on?)
D A
And the kingdom come and the trumpet blow
Bm G
In the cold, hard ground there's some letters you wrote (Please forget me not)
D A G
A D
Would I get any rest from the wreck that I was with the living?
