

Bright Eyes - Ladder Song

tom:

Bm

Bm

Bm7

No one knows where the ladder goes

You're going to lose what you love the most

You're not alone in anything

You're not unique in dying

I feel estranged every now and then

Fall asleep reading science fiction

I want to fly in your silver ship

Let Jesus hang and Buddha sit

D

It's on now

A

The days are long now

G

The ups and the sundowns

A

And a twisting mind

D

If I've got to go first

A

I'll do it on my terms

G

I'm tired of traitors always changing sides

A

They were friends of mine

Bm

A

G

Don't hang around as the promise breaks

You'll be there when the next one's made

Kiss the feet of a charlatan

Some imagined freedom

All the rest is predictable

You can say you're the first to know

Em

G

Bought a mantra to concentrate

Car alarm or hissing snake

D

I know now

A

How it's going to turn now

G

You got to calm down

A

Or I'll lose my place

D

Got to get to the center

A

Got to get to the concert

G

Run off with a dancer

E

Going to celebrate

Em

A

We'll welcome the new age

Covered in warrior paint

A

Lights from the jungle to the sky

D

See now, a star's born

Looks just like a blood orange

G

G

Em

Don't it just make you want to cry

D

Precious friend of mine?

Bm

A

G

Well, I know when it's finally done

This whole life's a hallucination

You're not alone in anything

You're not alone in trying

To be
