

Bring Me The Horizon - Blasphemy

Tom: C

You got hell to pay but you already sold your soul
 It's blasphemy
 But the words don't make sense no more
 What would your mother say, your faith that you ignored
 So don't try to tell me that you still believe
 No don't preach to me

2x:

(Am G F C Dm)
 (Am G F C G)

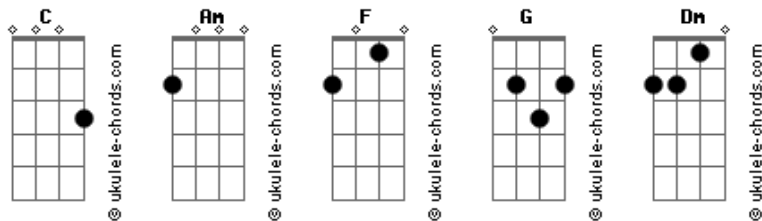

(Am F C G)
 (Am F C G)

Ask no questions and you'll get no lies
 Turn the cheek and blind the eye
 Let it go
 Bend the knee and give away your life
 Bite your tongue and close your mind
 Never know

You got hell to pay but you already sold your soul
 It's blasphemy
 But the words don't make sense no more
 What would your mother say, your faith that you ignored
 So don't try to tell me that you still believe
 No don't preach to me

2x:

Acordes

(Am G F C Dm)
 (Am G F C G)

You're not blessed you're cursed
 And it's getting worse now

It makes no sense but it must right
 The blood and sweat you sacrificed
 Was it all for nothing

Cause you found no sign and see no light
 We hear no voice when we pray at night
 But we swore and now it's too late to turn back
 (F C Dm)
 (F C Dm)
 (F C Dm)

You're not blessed you're cursed
 And it's getting worse now

You got hell to pay but you already sold your soul
 It's blasphemy
 But the words don't make sense no more
 What would your mother say, your faith that you ignored
 So don't try to tell me that you still believe
 No don't preach to me
 No don't preach to me
 No don't preach to me
 It's blasphemy
