You are the light of my beautiful life
You know I wake up and everyday
I feel safe knowing that you
        С
Got my back now and forever
Living my life coz I've got nothing to do
When a tear falls, you put your hands out
You catch my tears
And I'm feeling so close to your love now
If I was lost now I feel found
I lift my hands and pray
'Cause life's tough somedays
But I will not lose faith
Em D'Cause you will lead the way
You're my light when it gets dark
