

Britney Spears - Let Go

Tom: C

It's written everywhere
 I've even read it in my script
 But when I thought it wasn't fair
 I felt it on my lips, let go
 I don't wanna be the one
 I think you already know, oh

 The feeling of going down way too deep
 Holding on so you won't lose your feet
 Sometimes you just gotta trust
 You gotta take that leap
 And let go
 Gotta let go

 I've got a feeling
 By your look you're through
 Oh no
 What you're revealing
 I sit and pray
 And I will pull through, oh no yeah

 When you let go
 Of all you've known
 The butterflies fly
 And you will see the rainbows
 And all the love
 Everything will be shown
 So let go

Let go
 The touch of grass, the air
 The sun it will rise
 You will see so clear
 It will bring tears to your eyes
 Maybe everything will be alright
 So let go
 You gotta let go

 I've got a feeling
 Right now
 You feel it too
 Oh, oh
 This little song
 Might be the one
 That will tell us what to do
 Oh, oh, ooh, ooh

 These tears are overflowing
 And never knowing why
 All these years we,
 We've been hurting
 We have to look inside
 And try
 To let go

 (G Em G Em)

 (spoken)
 You gotta let go
 To love, you gotta let go
 If you really wanna love
 You gotta let go
