

Bruce Dickinson - Meltdown

Tom: E

(B. Dickinson, A. Dickson)

Guitar transcription by Aaron Shay

after drum intro.

let ring throughout

hey.. you wait cringing in the dark

you create what you ve always feared

a puppet of hatred dishing out

poison

then they repeat the above riff over another vocal passage leading to.....

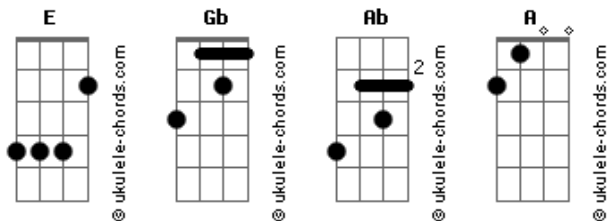

I can smell the difference your truth and your fiction you and your twisted convictions

Chorus:

Gb Ab
Were you my friend when I belonged?

Acordes

A B2
Were you my friend when I was strong?

Gb Ab
Were you my friend when I was weak?

A B2
Were you my freind when I was callin', crawlin', out of my head?

```

-----|
-----|
-5-6--5-6---2-1-----1-2-----5-6--5-6---2-1---1/2--|
-4-4--4-4--4-4--x-x-4-4--x-x--4-4--4-4--4-4-x-4--4--|
-----|
-----|
-----7-----7-----|
--5-6-----6-5-----5-6-----5-6-----6---555555---|
-----4444444---|
-----|

```

then another verse,another chorus then this riff...

The solo is in Gb pentatonic, I believe, for any improvisers or theory buffs. No promises on this tab...Alex is very creative and very hard to follow. Oh yeah, in the chorus that B2 chord looks like this:

```

--2-- --2-- --4-- --4-- --2--

```