

Bruce Dickinson - Omega

Tom: G

Em G D G Em
The ashes drift away, smoke of our confusion
Em G D G Bm Em
We turn our frightened faces to each other, say goodbye
Em G D G Em
Waited for the sign, waited for the moment
Em G D Bm C
Waited for the miracle to arrive, I guess they lied

C Em
Look at your future, take a look at your burning sky
C Am D
Look at your future, look at your burning sky

Em G D G Em
The others they have gone, who wants to live forever
Em G D G Bm Em
With nothing left to hold on to the past that we once knew?
Em G D G Em
We believed in heaven, we believed in angels
Em G D Bm C
With arms of purest white, to hold us, catch us when we fall

C Em
Look at your future, take a look at your burning sky
C Am D
Look at your future, now look at your burning sky

Em C Em D Gbm Em

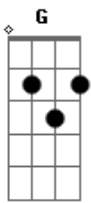

Now it's omega zero day
C Em D Bm Em
the red star shines it's last rays
C Em D Gbm Em
The sun that gave us life yesterday
Em C Em D Bm C
Is now the sun that takes our lives away

C Em
Take a look at your future, look at your burning sky
C Am D
Look at your future, look at your burning sky

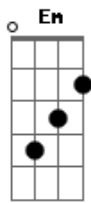

Em C Em C Gbm Em
Now it's omega zero day
C Em D Bm Em
the red star shines it's last rays
C Em D Gbm Em
The sun that gave us life yesterday
Em C Em D Bm C
Is now the sun that takes our lives away

Em C Em D Gbm Em
Now it's omega zero day
C Em D Bm Em
the red star shines it's last rays
C Em D Gbm Em
The sun that gave us life yesterday
Em C Em D Bm C
Is now the sun that takes our lives away
