

Bruce Springsteen - Hearts Of Stone

tom:

Intro: F Am Bb C

You stare in the mirror at the lines in your face
 And you try to see, girl
 The way things were when we were at your place
 In the days it was just you and me girl
 And you cry because things ain't like before
 Well don't you know they can't be that way anymore
 But don't worry baby

I can't talk now I'm not alone
 So put your ear close to the phone
 'cause this is the last dance
 This is the last chance for hearts of stone

If there was something baby, that I could do Something that would last, honey I would
 But we all know, girl, especially you do
 How you can't return to your past, no

So girl close your eyes and I'll be there
 Hold me once more and we can go anywhere
 Ah we could

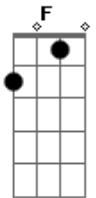

I can't talk now I'm not alone
 So put your ear close to the phone
 'cause this is the last dance
 This is the last chance for hearts of stone

[Solo] F Am Bb C
 F Am Bb C

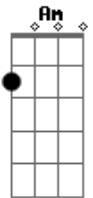

And you cry because things ain't like before
 Well don't you know they can't be that way anymore
 But don't worry baby, well I know it baby

I can't talk now I'm not alone
 So put your ear close to the phone
 'cause this is the last dance
 This is the last chance for hearts of stone
 This is the last dance
 This is the last chance for hearts of stone
