That's the way it's been here lately

You're too busy now to save me

Gm

Feels like you forget I'm waiting for you

Eb

Sometimes I wish I could just let go

But I love you (I love you)

And I believe that one day you will come around

But can you tell me

Bb

F

Gm Eb

I tell myself I'm not gonna wait for you whenever you go

Bb

F

You give me your word and I always take it

Gm

You say you'll be home but you never make it

F

So why do I...

Eb

F

Gm

F

Always end up that girl at the window (the window)

Eb

F

Gm

The girl at the window

Bb

I know you're working that's why you're leaving

F

I will never argue your reasons

Gm

F

If this means that you believe in them

Bb

Oh time goes on and we're growing apart

F

Broken promises break my heart

Gm

F

Please don't give me a reason to say goodbye

How can I be what you're saying

When you keep turning all the pages

Am I suppose to believe your words are true

Don't take advantage of me cos you know I won't leave you

I make sure you know I always wanna see you

Whoa won't you do it for me too

Oh how do I always end up being the girl at the window
(window, window)

I tell myself I'm not gonna wait for you whenever you go
(you go, you go)

You give me your word and I always take it

You say you'll be home but you never make it

So why do I..

Always end up that girl at the window (the window)

The girl at the window
