

BZN - The Old Calahan

tom:

[Primeira Parte]

Last night when I felt so lonely and so blue
 I was playing that old time blues
 The blues of old Calahan.
 Well, he was born in Kentucky, far away
 He would be soon the fatest man
 Kentucky ever knew

[Refrão]

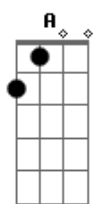

I took my guitar and my old country fiddle
 Played me a song of the old Calahan.
 He once was a star in the days of the union
 We all know him as the old Calahan.

[Segunda Parte]

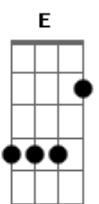

Well, he was poor with no penny to his name
 There was sorrow and there was pain
 But no-one was to blame.
 He went to town, just a guitar in his hands
 He made fortune and he got fame
 At last he made the grade.

[Terceira Parte]

Last night when I felt so lonely and so blue
 I was playing that old time blues
 The blues of old Calahan.
 So I can tell you wherever, my best friends
 When you're lonely, when you're blue
 Just play it like I do.

[Refrão Final]

I took my guitar and my old country fiddle
 Played me a song of the old Calahan.

He once was a star in the days of the union
 We all know him as the old Calahan.
