

Caetano Veloso - Nostalgia (that's What Rock'n'roll Is All About)

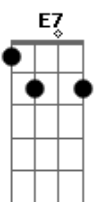

Tom: E
 Intro: (E E7) A Bb B
 (E E7)
 You sing about waking up in the morning
 But you're never up before noon
 (A A7)
 You look completely different from those straights
 Who walked around on the moon
 B7
 The clothes you wear
 A7 (E E7)
 Would suit an old times baloon
 B7
 You're always nowhere
 A7 (E E7)
 But you'll realize pretty soon

B7
 That all that you care
 A7 (E E7) A Bb B
 Isn't worth a twelve bar tune
 (E E7)
 You believe you're just one more flower
 Among so many flowers that sprout
 (A A7)
 You just feel faintly proud when you hear they shout
 Very loud, "You're not allowed in here, get out"
 B7 A7 (E E7)
 That's what rock'n'roll is all about
 B7 A7 (E E7)
 That's what rock'n'roll is all about
 B7 A7 E
 I mean, that's what rock'n'roll was all about
