

Caetano Veloso - Wait Until Tomorrow

Tom: A

Intro: A D

Well, I'm standing here freezing, inside your golden garden

Got my ladder leaned up against your wall

Tonight's the night we planned to run away together

Come on dolly mae

There's no time to stall
But now you're telling me that ah...

I think we better wait till

I think we better wait till

I think we better wait till

Got to make sure it's right
So until goodnight

Oh, dolly mae

How can you hang me up this way

Oh the phone you said you wanted to run off with me today

Now I'm standing here like some turned down serenading fool

Hearing strange words stutter from the mixed up mind of you
And you keep telling me that ah...

E7 Am7 G

I think we better wait till

E7 Am7 G

I think we better wait till

E7 Am7 G

I think we better wait till

Got to make sure it's right

So until goodnight

Oh, dolly mae

Girl, you must be insane

So unsure of yourself learning from your unsure window pane

Do I see a silhouette of somebody pointing something from a tree?

Click, bang

Oh, what a hang

Your daddy just shot poor me

And I hear you say

As I fade away

E7 Am7 G

We don't have to wait till

E7 Am7 G

We don't have to wait till

E7 Am7 G

We don't have to wait till

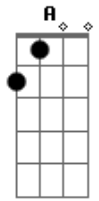

It must not have been right, so forever, goodnight

E7 Am7 G

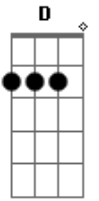

We don't have to wait till

It must not have been right, so forever, goodnight
