

Cain's Offering - Too Tired To Run

Tom: C
Intro: Am C Dm F G
C Em Dm C F G
Am

Em D G
There was a time when I could make your bright eyes gleam
D Em D
Now smiles upon your face are few and far between
Em D G
We were so young, naive and blind in all our pride
D G D Em D Em D
To see the war - ning, the turning of the tide

C G
And I guess it's best we laid to rest
Am
All that we had and all that we hoped for
G G
It's time to close the door

Am C
Stand here by my side and watch the river flow
Dm F G
Through fields once green, where our garden used to grow
C Em
Life goes by so fast and time waits for no one
Dm C
Too long we stared into the sun
F G Am
Now days are growing dark and we're too tired to run

Gbm E A
Now that we've lost the flame, the beauty of it all
E Gbm E
Our symmetry of souls reduced to metaphor
Gbm E A
We live, we learn some things are impossible to do
E Gbm E
And still I need you more than I want to

D A
But I guess it's best we laid to rest
Bm
All that we had and all that we hoped for
A A

It's time to close the door

Bm D
Stand here by my side and watch the river flow
Em G A
Through silent fields, where our garden used to grow
D Gbm
Life goes by so fast and time waits for no one
Em D
Too long we stared into the sun
G A Bm
Now days are growing dark and we're too tired to run

D A
I could've been worse, but I should've been better
Bm
Should've been there 'cause I said "forever"
Now I'm here wondering what
G
Should've, could've, would've been and

D A
I could've said more 'cause the words they matter
Bm
Should've been strong so you wouldn't have shattered
But I'm here wondering what
G
Should've, could've, would've been

D A
And I hope he gives more than I did
Bm A A
All that you need and all that you hope for
Dbm E
Stand here by my side and watch the river flow
Gbm A B
Through silent fields, where our garden used to grow
E Abm
Life goes by so fast, so hold me one last time
Gbm
You'll always be true love of mine
A B E
And when the day is through I'm watching over you

(B Dbm A)
(E B Dbm A)

Acordes

