

Cake - Frank Sinatra

Tom: C

We know of an ancient radiation that
 Haunts dismembered constellations
 A faintly glimmering radio station
 While Frank Sinatra sings Stormy Weather
 The flies and spiders get along together
 Cobwebs form on an old skipping record
 Beyond the suns that guard this roost
 Beyond your flowers of flaming truths
 Beyond your latest ad campaigns
 An old man sits collecting stamps
 In a room all filled with Chinese lamps
 He saves what others throw away, he says that he'll be rich someday

 We know of an ancient radiation that
 Haunts dismembered constellations
 A faintly glimmering radio station
 (solo)
 We know of an ancient radiation that
