 Most of my friends
 They stop calling by now
 'Cause every time they do
 I'm still crying over you
 'Cause even my mother
 She still asks about you
 'Bout when you're coming home
 And I keep telling her you won't
 'Cause what goes up
 Must come down
 I'm messed up
 Can't sleep now
 If that's love
 Count me out
 'Cause I remember the first time
 You called me
 The first time
 You kissed me
 The first time you said you missed me
 And I said I missed you too
 I remember the first time
 That we fought
 The first time
 We made up
 That first house we ever moved into
 There's a first time for everything

Am F
 But these will be the last tears I cry for you
 These will be the last tears I cry for you
 Speak of the devil
 Why you calling me now?
 Too little and too late
 I was sad now I feel great
 'Cause what went up
 Came back down
 You're messed up
 I see that now
 If that's love
 Count me out
 'Cause I remember the first time
 You called me
 The first time
 You kissed me
 The first time you said you missed me
 And I said I missed you too
 I remember the first time
 That we fought
 The first time
 We made up
 That first house we ever moved into
 There's a first time for everything
 But these will be the last tears I cry for you
 But these will be the last tears I cry for you
 These will be the last tears I cry for you
 These will be the last tears I cry for you
 These will be the last tears I cry for you
