

Cambriana - Face To Face

```
tom:
Intro: Ab
Wendy, you're stuck in my game, i know_
                                                                                                     Cm Bb
Wouldn't be here without pain, for sure
Cm Bb Fm Ab
50 years on, no one will know
Cm Bb Fm
The delicate, humdrum ways of this love
If you can keep up someday

Bb Fm
Finally face to face
If you can keep up someday
                                                                                                                                                                                                                     Ab
There's still an ocean between us, love $\operatorname{\mathsf{Bb}}$
                                                                                                             Bb
Everything hurts when it's not enough % \left\{ 1\right\} =\left\{ 1
                                                                                      Ăb
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            Cm
If you rely on the coldest nights
```

```
Look in my head for what's not in sight
Wendy, you're hurt that i came back home Cm Bb Fm
Wouldn't be here without pain, i know
( Ab Cm Bb Fm )
( Ab Cm Bb Fm )
If you can keep up someday
   Bb Fm
Finally face to face
If you can keep up someday
                Ab
There's still an ocean between us, love
       Bb
Everything hurts when it's not enough Ab Cm
If you rely on the coldest nights Bb
Look in my head for what's not in sight
( Ab Cm Bb Fm )
( Ab Cm Bb Fm )
( Ab )
```

Acordes

