

Cameron Dallas - Why Haven't I Met You

Tom: G

Intro: B Em Dm Bm

I gotta be honest, I gotta be honest
 Hearts been walked on, so I'm cautious
 I gotta stay cautious
 When I start falling, I just stop it
 Baby, I stop it
 'Cause I know it's not you
 And I've waited for you
 But then my bed grows colder like my empty shoulder
 What can I do?
 'Cause it's too hard to face all alone on this pillow
 Waiting for your love wishing it was that simple
 Knowing that you're out there looking for me
 Why haven't I met you?
 If only I met you you you you
 If only I met you you you you
 Why haven't I met you you you you
 If only I met you
 Why haven't I met you?
 I gotta be honest, just let me be honest
 Got trust issues, I'm not flawless

No, I'm not flawless
 Never second guess me girl, I promise
 Baby I promise
 'Cause I know it's not you
 And I've waited for you
 'Cause it's too hard to face all alone on this pillow
 Waiting for your love wishing it was that simple
 Knowing that you're out there looking for me
 Why haven't I met you?
 If only I met you you you you
 If only I met you you you you
 Why haven't I met you you you you
 If only I met you
 Why haven't I met you?
 Girl, I know you're out there now
 And I know you're holding out
 Need me to come around
 Know that I won't let you down, no
 'Cause it's too hard to face all alone on this pillow
 Waiting for your love wishing it was that simple
 Knowing that you're out there looking for me
 Why haven't I met you?
