

Camila Cabello - I Only Told The Moon

Tom: F

Stay back, stay long, and you move on
 I stress, come close, move on, please don't

Hello, how are you? How you've been?
 Lately I wonder how it feels to steal your kiss
 Nothing much, just fine I'm doing well
 And you can read between the lines but God, I fell

I only told the moon, tonight up on the roof
 I told her that I'm scared that all my thoughts they look like you
 I only told the moon, about the way you move
 I asked her to please tell me if you tell things to her too

Silence. Too loud. Say it, not now
 So how are you? How you've been?
 Lately I wonder how it feels to taste your lips
 Nothing much, just fine I'm doing well
 And you can read between the lines but God, I fell

I only told the moon, tonight up on the roof

I told her that I'm scared that all my thoughts they look like you
 I only told the moon, about the way you move
 I asked her to please tell me if you tell things to her too
 That I give it all to you, I give it all to you, I give it all to you
 I only told the moon

Aahhh-Aahhh and another loves song will play on the radio, you know
 Aahhh-Aahhh and I'll wait for the moon to lean in close and say
 That he only told the moon, tonight up on the roof
 He told me that he's scared that all his thoughts they look like you
 I only told the moon, about the way you move
 I asked her to please tell me if you tell this to her too

That I give it all to you, I give it all to you, I give it all to you
 He only told the moon
 He only told the moon
