

Camila Cabello - Must Be Love

tom: G

Wise men say, only fools rush in
 But I took your hand and I jumped right in
 I guess everything has a consequence, oh I, I
 I get mad, and put on a show
 'Cause the high are high but the lows are low
 You control me more than you've ever known
 But I wouldn't have it any other way

Must be love
 Or this wouldn't hurt so much
 And I wouldn't think so much
 And I could just give you up, up, oh

Must be love
 Or this wouldn't hurt so much
 And I wouldn't think so much
 And I could just give you up, up, oh

I fall hard, that's just how I am
 And I bend and break like a rubber band
 Everything gets real after two AM
 So don't, don't, don't look at me like that
 When you're the one that implied that

Am
 'Cause I'm gonna look at you right back

W e fuss and we fight, forget that night
 And I wouldn't have it any other way

Must be love
 Or this wouldn't hurt so much
 And I wouldn't think so much
 And I could just give you up, up, oh
 Must be love
 Or this wouldn't hurt so much
 And I wouldn't think so much
 And I could just give you up, up, oh

Love, love, love
 And I could just give you up

Must be love
 Or this wouldn't hurt so much (so much)
 And I wouldn't think so much
 And I could just give you up, up, oh

Must be love
 Yeah
 Must be love
