

Camila Cabello - Something's Gotta Give

Tom: Ab
                                                               If it doesn't hurt me, why do I still cry?
 (com acordes na forma de G )
Capostraste na 1ª casa
                                                               If it didn't kill me, then I'm half alive, half alive
Intro: C Em G D
                                                               How did we get so far gone?
Loving you, I thought I couldn't get no higher
Your November rain could set the night on fire, night on fire
                                                             I should know by now, you should know by now
But we could only burn so long
                                                               We should know by now
Counterfeit emotions only run skin deep
                                                               Something's gotta give, something's gotta break
Know you're lying when you're lying next to me, next to me
                                                               But all I do is give, and all you do is take
How did we get so far gone?
                                                               Something's gotta change, but I know that it won't
I should know by now, you should know by now
                                                               No reason to stay - ay - ay - is a good reason to go
We should know by now
                                                                         Is a good reason to go, ooh
Something's gotta give, something's gotta break
                                                               I should know by now, you should know by now
But all I do is give, and all you do is take
                                                               I think I'm breaking right now, ooh
Something's gotta change, but I know that it won't
                                                               I should know by now, you should know by now
No reason to stay - ay - is a good reason to go
                                                               I think I'm breaking right now
          Is a good reason to go, ooh
                                                               Something's gotta give, something's gotta break
I have never heard a silence quite so loud
                                                               But all I do is give, and all you do is take
I walk in the room and you don't make a sound, make a sound
                                                               Something's gotta change, but I know that it won't
You're good at making me feel small
                                                               No reason to stay - ay - is a good reason to go
