

Camila Marinho - Who Knows

Tom: D

Face to face, eye to eye

And I still don't know why

I listen to myself

I can't see what you see

I hate the destiny and all that shit,

I can pretend pretty well

You say are clouds but I see facts

You say it will I look the past

Better go slow but I go fast

All the mistakes are ghosting around

And all the goals are fading out

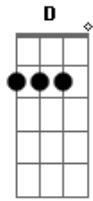

I just want to shoot it down

Who knows how your heart loves your own heart ? Who knows

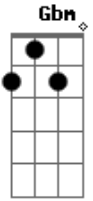

How your heart loves your own heart,

who knows? please know
