

Canto Verbo - The Song Of Hosea - New Again

tom:

Intro: C D C ^G D Bm

^{Am}
So she comes around the table

Once again

^{Am} With a broken heart and guilty hands

Only you could cure and mend the pain

^C She saw it glowing, and she went astray

She heard the whisper and was wooed away
Yes she fell for all of them

^C She took a lie and made it true

To fill the hole that she could never do
As if she would catch the rainbow

And as she comes

^C Take her, break her, tell her what she needs and make her new again

^C Take her, fill her, give her bread and wine and make her whole again

^{Am} So you kept all the promises

You vowed to her

^{Am} And when you saw it in their eyes, oh you're just a fool

It didn't keep you from loving her

^C You gave yourself; you paid the price

With tears and blood, you saved her life

Oh, the sweetest love you showed

^C You made of her your only wife

Now in you, she is pure and bright
Like the moon

^C Now she shines the light that comes from you

You are her only hope, her way, her truth

You're everything that she has now
And as she comes

^C Take her, break her, tell her what she needs and make her new again

^C Take her, clothe her, wash her in your blood and make her new again

^C Take her, fill her, give her bread and wine and make her whole again

^C You gave yourself; you paid the price

With tears and blood, you saved our life
Oh, the sweetest love you showed to us

^C You made of us your only wife

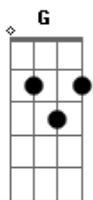

Now in you, we are pure and bright
And as we come with broken hearts, we cry out

^C Take us, break us, tell us what we need and make us new again

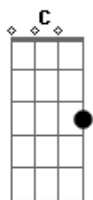

^C Take us, clothe us, wash us in your blood and make us pure again

^C Take us, fill us, give us bread and wine and make us sing
