

Canyon City - Needles & Pins

tom:

A

I woke up before the sun rose

Did my best to walk on tip toes

Dbm

Needles and pins

Bm

Cus if you heard the way I pace

Around this room your mind would race for the

D

Reasons and sins

I never learned to wear a tie and go to work and

Dbm

Tell you lies like everything's ok

Though sometimes it is for a little while

And I can live in between those smiles

And patiently wait

Bm

When it feels like home where you can't be found

Cus she haunts the alone and you need her now

Bm

Revered like gold in your plastic crown

D

When your kingdom falls and you lay it down

Bm

Before the next breathe you need the grace

To breathe out

I've been talking faster I've been

Looking for distraction trying to

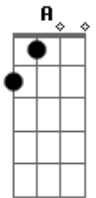

Dbm

Loosen up some days

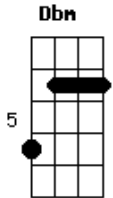

Bm

Ain't it funny how we can't remember

Most our lives while a few words never

Mercifully fade

So I beg you honey take some pictures

Frame them hang them high and let's

Dbm

Set fire to the room

Bm

Cus I think I like the lighting better

When it's wrapped up in burning time like

Sweaters for your cold winter blue

Bm

When it feels like home where you can't be found

Cus she haunts the alone and you need her now

Bm

Revered like gold in your plastic crown

When your kingdom falls and you lay it down

Bm

D

Before the next breathe you need the grace

To breathe out

Dbm

D

E

Oh have I lost some keys in the dust as I cleaned up

Dbm

D

Bm

Oh don't it always seem to come as you let go

Bm

When it feels like home where you can't be found

Cus she haunts the alone and you need her now

Bm

Revered like gold in your plastic crown

When your kingdom falls and you lay it down

Bm
