

Car Seat Headrest - Famous Prophets (Stars)

Intro: Gb A Gb A  Bm		We gotta go back
Intro: 6b A Gb A  E D E Gb A  Apologies to future mes and yous  Gb But I can't help feeling like we're through  E The right parts parts parts  The right parts parts parts  Apologies to future mes and yous  Gb But I can't help feeling like we're through  E The right parts parts  The right parts parts  A But I can't help feeling like we're through  E The right parts parts  The right parts parts  A But I can't help feeling like we're through  E We've gotta go back  A B We've gotta go back  We've gotta go back  A B We've gotta go back  A B We've gotta go back  We've gotta go back  A B We've gotta go back  B We've		E We gotta go back
Apologies to future mes and yous A Apologies to future mes and yous A Apologies to future mes and yous A But I can't help feeling like we're through E C A B We've gotta go back E C A A B We've gotta go back E C A A B We've gotta go back E C A A B We've gotta go back A B	Intro: Gb A Gb A
Apologies to future mes and yous 6	[Primeira Parte]	We gotta go back
A But I can't help feeling like we're through Cb D A B We've gotta go back Cb A B D E Gbm A Cb A Cb A E		We gotta go back
The ripping of the tape hurts my ears  E C C C C C C C C C C C C C C C C C C	Gb A	E
They years, I have never seen anyone quit quite like you do  A  We've gotta go back A  B  We've	E D	A B
Gb A We've gotta go back From where I kicked the back of the seat in E C	. .	We've gotta go back E
Twin bruises on my shins  The where I kicked the back of the seat in  E COD  They meant what I went through for you  But now they're fading, now they're gone  Gob A  Gob	In my years, I have never seen anyone quit quite like you do
From where I kicked the back of the seat in  E  They meant what I went through for you  But now they're fading, now they're gone  Gbm Gb A B  These teenage hands will never touch yours again  E  But I remember you  You had a body  Gb A  B  To had a body  To had hands and arms and legs and et cetera  Gb A  The morning when I wake up, are you mine?  Gbi I fail? Did I fall?)  Gb E  Take the trash out like a bad dream, are you gone?  C(Did I waste my time, waste my time on a broken heart?)  E  Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you mine?  Gb  Tim not gonna end up a nervous wreck  A  Cist the people I know who are nervous wrecks  Gb  The ocean washed open your grave  Bm  The ocean washed open yo		We've gotta go back
They meant what I went through for you Gb A But now they're fading, now they're gone Gb A But now they're fading, now they're gone Gb A But now they're fading, now they're gone Gb A But now they're fading, now they're gone Gb A But now they're gone Gb Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone? Gb Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone? Cb Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone? Cb Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone? Cb Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone? Cb Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone? Cb Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone? Cb Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone? Cb Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone? Cb Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone? Cb Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone? Cb Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone? Cb Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone? Cb Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone? Cb Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone? Cb Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone? Cb Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone? Cb Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone? Cb Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone? Cb Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone? Cb
Gbm Gb A Gb A C Gb A Gb A E D E Gbm A Gb A C Gb A Gb A E D E Gbm A Gb A C Gb A Gb A E D E Gbm A Gb A Gb A E D E Gbm A Gb A Gb A E D E Gbm A Gb A Gb A E D E Gbm A Gb A E D E Gbm A Gb A Gb A E D E Gbm A Gb A Gb A E D E Gbm A Gb A Gb A E D E Gbm A Gb A Gb A E D E Gbm A Gb A Gb A E D E Gbm A Gb A Gb A E D E Gbm A Gb A Gb A E D E Gbm A Gb A Gb A E D E Gbm A Gb A Gb A Gb A E D E Gbm A Gb A Gb A Gb A E D E Gbm A Gb A Gb A Gb A E D E Gbm A Gb A Gb A Gb A Gb A Gb A E D E Gbm A Gb	E They meant what I went through for you
Gom Gb A Gb A G Gb A Gb A G G G G	E Gb A But now they're fading, now they're gone	E We've gotta go back
These teenage hands will never touch yours again  E But I remember you D You had a body E O Sob A O O D D D D D D D D D D O T O D D D D D	[Solo] E
But I remember you  Dyou had a body  Gob	Gbm Gb A Gb A	(Gb A Gb A E D E Gbm A
You had a body E You had hands and arms and legs and et cetera  You had hands and arms and legs and et cetera  Gb A In the morning when I wake up, are you mine?  Gb In the morning when I wake up, are you mine?  Gb E A E Take the trash out like a bad dream, are you gone?  (Did I waste my time, waste my time on a broken heart?) E From the old house, the fiercest heart spoke, are you mine?  E C Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone?  (Is this the start of every day?)  Gb I'm not gonna end up a nervous wreck A Like the people I know who are nervous wrecks Gb Though I'm not gonna name names  Yours was an exception A E Did the sound just stop? E A C The ocean washed over your grave Bm A A E Did the sound just stop? E A The ocean washed over your grave Bm A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A The ocean washed over your grave Bm A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A The ocean washed over your grave Bm A The ocean washed open your grave Dbm The ocean washed open your grave Bm A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A The ocean washed open your grave Dbm The ocean washed open your grave Bm A The ocean washed open your grave Dbm The ocean washed open your grave Bm The ocean washed open your grave Dbm The ocean washed o	These teenage hands will never touch yours again E
You had hands and arms and legs and et cetera  You might lose your breath B In the morning when I wake up, are you mine?  Gb A B In the morning when I wake up, are you mine?  Gb E A E Take the trash out like a bad dream, are you gone?  (Did I waste my time, waste my time on a broken heart?)  E From the old house, the fiercest heart spoke, are you mine?  (Or is this the start of the great silence?)  E Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone?  (Is this the start of every day?)  Gb A ( A )  The ocean washed over your grave Bm A A E Bm A A E Dhm The ocean washed over your grave A The ocean washed over your grave Dhm The ocean washed over your grave Dhm The ocean washed over your grave A The ocean washed over your grave Bm A A E Did the sound just stop?  E The ocean washed open your grave Dhm The ocean washed open your grave A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A A The ocean washed open your grave Dhm The ocean washed open your grave A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A A A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A A A The ocean washed open your grave Bm A A A The ocean washed open your grave Bm	But I remember you	( D Dbm B A )
You had hands and arms and legs and et cetera  Gb  A  In the morning when I wake up, are you mine?  Gb  In the morning when I wake up, are you mine?  Gb  E  A  E  Take the trash out like a bad dream, are you gone?  (Did I waste my time, waste my time on a broken heart?)  From the old house, the fiercest heart spoke, are you mine?  From the old house, the fiercest heart spoke, are you mine?  From the start of the great silence?)  E  Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone?  (Is this the start of every day?)  I'm not gonna end up a nervous wreck  A  Like the people I know who are nervous wrecks  Gb  Though I'm not gonna name names  The ocean washed open your grave  Bm  A  A  E  The ocean washed open your grave  Bm  A  The ocean washed open your grave  D  The ocean washed open your grave  Bm  A  The ocean washed open your grave  D  The ocean washed open your grave  Bm  A  The ocean washed open your grave  D  The ocean washed open your grave  Bm  A  The ocean washed open your grave  D  The ocean washed open your grave  Bm  A  The ocean washed open your grave  Bm  The ocean washed open your grave  Bm  A  The ocean washed open your grave  Bm  The ocean washed open your grave		Don't get too impressed
In the morning when I wake up, are you mine?  On't predict your death A  (Did I fail? Did I fall?)  Gb		Dbm
Take the trash out like a bad dream, are you gone?  Take the trash out like a bad dream, are you gone?  (Did I waste my time, waste my time on a broken heart?)  E		В
Take the trash out like a bad dream, are you gone?  (Did I waste my time, waste my time on a broken heart?)  E  D  Don't you fall apart  Dobm  You might lose my heart  B  You know I love your art  (Or is this the start of the great silence?)  E  Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone?  (Is this the start of every day?)  Gb  I'm not gonna end up a nervous wreck  A  Like the people I know who are nervous wrecks  Gb  The ocean washed over your grave  A  Like the people I know who are nervous wrecks  Gb  The ocean washed open your grave  Bm  A  Bm  The ocean washed open your grave  Dom  The ocean washed over your grave  Dom  The ocean washed over your grave  Dom  The ocean washed open your grave  Dom  The ocean washed open your grave  A  E  Did the sound just stop?  E  A  E  The ocean washed over your grave  A  The ocean washed over your grave  Dom  The ocean washed over your grave  A  The ocean washed over your grave  Dom  The ocean washed over your grave  The ocean washed over your grave  The ocean washed over your grave		'Cause I like you the best
(Did I waste my time, waste my time on a broken heart?)  E  O  From the old house, the fiercest heart spoke, are you mine?  E  Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone?  (Is this the start of every day?)  Gb  I'm not gonna end up a nervous wreck  A  Like the people I know who are nervous wrecks  Gb  Though I'm not gonna name names  You know I love your art  D  D  D  D  D  The ocean washed over your grave  Bm  A  The ocean washed open your grave  Bm  A  The ocean washed over your grave  Bm  A  The ocean washed open your grave  D  D  The ocean washed open your grave  A  The ocean washed over your grave  The ocean washed over your grave  D  D  The ocean washed over your grave  The ocean washed over your grave  D  The ocean washed over your grave  Bm  A  The ocean washed over your grave  D  D  D  The ocean washed over your grave  D  D  The ocean washed over your grave  D  The ocean washed over your grave  D  D  D  The ocean washed over your grave  D  D  D  The ocean washed over your grave  D  D  D  The ocean washed over your grave  D  D  D  The ocean washed over your grave  D  D  D  The ocean washed over your grave  D  D  D  The ocean washed over your grave  D  D  D  The ocean washed over your grave  D  D  D  The ocean washed over your grave  D  D  D  D  The ocean washed over your grave  D  D  D  D  D  D  D  D  D  D  D  D  D		D
From the old house, the fiercest heart spoke, are you mine?  (Or is this the start of the great silence?)  E  Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone?  (Is this the start of every day?)  Gb  I'm not gonna end up a nervous wreck A  Like the people I know who are nervous wrecks Gb  Though I'm not gonna name names  Though I'm not gonna name names  The ocean washed over your grave  Bm  A  Like the people I know who are nervous wrecks Gb  The ocean washed open your grave  The ocean washed over your grave  Bm  The ocean washed over your grave  D  The ocean washed over your grave  The ocean washed over your grave  Bm  The ocean washed open your grave  D  The ocean washed open your grave		Dbm
(Or is this the start of the great silence?)  E Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone?  (Is this the start of every day?)  Gb The ocean washed over your grave Bm The ocean washed open your grave Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone?  The ocean washed over your grave Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone?  The ocean washed over your grave Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone?  The ocean washed over your grave Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone?  The ocean washed open your grave Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone?  The ocean washed open your grave Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone?  The ocean washed open your grave Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone?  The ocean washed open your grave Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone?  The ocean washed open your grave Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone?  The ocean washed open your grave Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone?  The ocean washed open your grave Christmas tree's dead, you have a many and the ocean washed open your grave Christmas tree's dead, you gone?  The ocean washed open your grave Christmas tree's dead, you gone?  Christmas tree's dead, you gone and the ocean washed open your grave Christmas tree's dead, you gone and the ocean washed open your grave Christmas tree's dead, you gone and the ocean washed open your grave Christmas tree's dead, you gone and the ocean washed open your grave Christmas tree's dead, you gone and the ocean washed open your grave Christmas tree's dead, you gone and the		В
Christmas tree's dead, you know how time flies, are you gone?  (Is this the start of every day?)  Gb  The ocean washed over your grave Bm  The ocean washed open your grave Dbm  The ocean washed over your grave Dbm  The ocean washed open your grave Bm  The ocean washed open your grave Bm  A  Like the people I know who are nervous wrecks  Gb  Though I'm not gonna name names  The ocean washed open your grave Dbm  The ocean washed over your grave Bm  A  E  Did the sound just stop?  E  At the end of every day  D  A  The ocean washed over your grave Dbm  The ocean washed over your grave Dbm  The ocean washed open your grave Dbm	· ·	· ·
(Is this the start of every day?)  Gb  The ocean washed over your grave  The ocean washed open your grave  The ocean washed over your grave  The ocean washed over your grave  The ocean washed open your grave  Bm  The ocean washed open your grave  A  Like the people I know who are nervous wrecks  Gb  Though I'm not gonna name names  D  The ocean washed open your grave  Yours was an exception  A  E  Did the sound just stop?  E  At the end of every day  D  A  The ocean washed over your grave  The ocean washed open your grave  Bm  The ocean washed open your grave  Dbm  The ocean washed over your grave  The ocean washed open your grave  Dbm  The ocean washed open your grave  The ocean washed open your grave  Dbm
Gb I'm not gonna end up a nervous wreck A Like the people I know who are nervous wrecks Gb Though I'm not gonna name names Though I'm not gonna name names The ocean washed open your grave Bm The ocean washed open your grave Dbm The ocean washed over your grave The ocean washed open your grave Bm The ocean washed open your grave Did the sound just stop? E The ocean washed over your grave Dbm The ocean washed over your grave Dbm The ocean washed over your grave The ocean washed open your grave Dbm The ocean washed over your grave Dbm The ocean washed open your grave	(Is this the start of every day?)	The ocean washed over your grave
A Like the people I know who are nervous wrecks Gb Though I'm not gonna name names The ocean washed open your grave Dbm The ocean washed over your grave The ocean washed over your grave Dbm The ocean washed over your grave The ocean washed open your grave Did the sound just stop? E The ocean washed over your grave Dbm The ocean washed over your grave Dbm The ocean washed over your grave The ocean washed open your grave D D Dbm The ocean washed open your grave The ocean washed open your grave D D Dbm		The ocean washed open your $\underline{\underline{grave}}$
Though I'm not gonna name names  Though I'm not gonna name names  The ocean washed open your grave  The ocean washed over your grave  Bm  A  E  The ocean washed open your grave  The ocean washed open your grave  Did the sound just stop?  E  The ocean washed open your grave  The ocean washed over your grave  At the end of every day  D  A  The ocean washed open your grave  A  The ocean washed open your grave  A  The ocean washed open your grave  D  D  D  D  D  D  D  D  D  D  D  D  D	A	The ocean washed over your grave
The ocean washed over your grave Yours was an exception A E Did the sound just stop? D The ocean washed open your grave Dbm  The ocean washed over your grave Dbm  The ocean washed over your grave At the end of every day D A There'll be nothing left to say D There'll be nothing left to say There'll be nothing left to say D There'll be nothing left to say There'll be nothing left to say	Gb	The ocean washed open your $\underline{\underline{grave}}$
A E Did the sound just stop?  E The ocean washed open your grave Dbm The ocean washed over your grave At the end of every day D A There'll be nothing left to say D The ocean washed open your grave D D D D D D D D D D D D D D D D D D D		The ocean washed over your grave
E The ocean washed over your grave At the end of every day Bm A The ocean washed open your grave There'll be nothing left to say D Dbm	A E	The ocean washed open your $\underline{\underline{g}}$ rave
D A The ocean washed open your grave There'll be nothing left to say D Dbm	E
	At the end of every day  D  A
E ine ocean washed over your grave	There'll be nothing left to say  E	D Dbm The ocean washed over your grave
There'll be no backstage pass  Bm A  The ocean washed open your grave	There'll be no backstage pass
( Gbm A ) D Dbm The ocean washed over your grave	( Gbm A )
E We gotta go back The ocean washed open your grave	-	Bm A
We gotta go back		D
So descend into cliche We gotta go back  Dbm

Oferecimento Lojalele.com.br

```
If you've found your holy grail
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  So descend into cliche
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             Dbm
I could fill back in that grave
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   If the music has forsaken you
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  Bm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  Roll the stone over the grave
I could hammer in that nail
I could give you what you want
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   I never liked that one anyways
I could give you what you deserve
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  Or stare into the face
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               Dbm
I could sing another song
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Of whatever it is that's facing you
I could watch that hammer swerve
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   And if the levee breaks
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   You'll find out what it is that's replacing you
And when the mirror breaks
                                          Dbm
I wouldn't miss it for the world % \left( 1\right) =\left( 1\right) \left( 1\right)
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   And when the mirror breaks
                             Bm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             Dbm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   I wouldn't miss it for the world
Call it blackstar, call it painstar
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Call it blackstar, call it painstar
The same thing happens when you touch it
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   The same thing happens when you touch it
Let me tell you, did they tell you
What happens when you touch it? Did they tell you?
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Did they tell you what happens when you touch it?
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      Dbm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Did they tell you what happens when you touch it?
Let me tell you what happens when you touch it
                                                                                                                Bm
Let me tell you, let me, let me
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Did they tell you
Let me, let me, let me
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Did they tell me
Let me, let me, let me, let me
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           Bm Dbm D
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        Dbm A Dbm D Bm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   What happened to you?
                                  Dbm Bm A
Let me in
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    [Final] Gbm E
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     Dbm D
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     Gbm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        E
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     Dbm D
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         Bm
( D Dbm Bm A )
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      Gbm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     Dbm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           D
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         Bm
 (DEBmBm)
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      Gbm E A
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Dbm D
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     Gbm E A
Gbm E A
 (ADDbmBmA)
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     Dbm D
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Dbm D Bm
                     D
Acordes
                          Вn
                                                                                    GЬ
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            Gbn
                                                                                                            ukulele-chords.com
                                                                                                                                                                      ukulele-chords.com
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          ukulele-chords.com
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    ukulele-chords.com
```