

Car Seat Headrest - We Can't Afford (Your Depression Anymore)

tom:

Bm

[Refrão]

A D Gbm
We can't afford your depression anymore
A D Gbm Gb
We can't afford this depression anymore
D A Am
Every minute that we spend
Am Em D
There is something to break down for
So just change key
Keep your mind on me
You've got a lot to live for
You've got a lot to go for

[Primeira Parte]

A D
We can share a room, share a bed, save rent as cellmates
A D
You'd think it was a crime to be alive

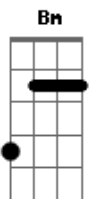

(that's your depression talking)
A
We're living in squalor
D
That's the name of this house
A
This house is called squalor by all
There's a door broken somewhere but

I never can remember quite where

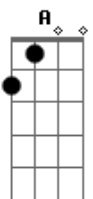

[Refrão]

A D Gbm
We can't afford our depression anymore
A D Gbm Gb
We can't afford this depression anymore
D A Am
How can we ever make a living?
Am Em D
Our job is trying not to die
So just change key
Keep your mind on me
You've got a lot to live for

Em
You've got a lot to go for

[Segunda Parte]

A D
We'd be starving artists if we were artists
A D
But we won't let ourselves become the art

(no we'll never sink that low)
A
Remember when we made jokes?
D
Now we're too poor for laughter
A
No, fuck it, we're too poor to be serious
A
So make me laugh again
[Refrão]

A D Gbm
We can't afford our depression anymore
A D Gbm Gb
We can't afford this depression anymore
D A Am
Every minute someone else
Am Em D
Is having a better time than us babe
So just change key
Keep your mind on me
You've got a lot to live for
You've got a lot to go for

(A D Gbm)

[Ponte]

A D Gbm
I've seen some things that I won't forget
A D Gbm
Ashtray carpets and starving pets
A D Gbm
If it's out of our hands then we'd better regret
A D Gbm
We spent the rest on cigarettes

[Final]

(A A D Gbm)

A D Gbm
I don't know how to make you happy
A D Gbm
I don't know how to make you happy
