

Carbona - All My Friends Are Falling in Love

Tom: A

There's nobody out in the football field

I walk through the bars

They're empty like my heart

At the club there's nothing new...

I don't know where to go neither where to start

I can't live with just good regards

Nice girls, nice friends

Don't know where they're

I stupid, selfish or some

Smart dumbshit motherfucker alone

Refrão 2x

Oh oh oh

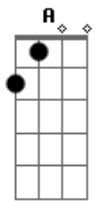

All my friends are falling in love

Oh oh

All my friends are falling in love!!!

Riff
