

The Carpenters - Solitaire

Tom: D

A D
There was a man
Bm
A lonely man
Who lost his love
G D A
Through his indifference

D
A heart that cared
Bm
That went unshared
Until it died
G D A
Within his silence

D
And solitaire's the only game in town
Bm
And every road that takes him
Bm
Takes him down
Em
And by himself it's easy to pretend A
G D A
He'll never love again

D
And keeping to himself he plays the game
Bm
Without her love
Bm
It always ends the same
Em A
While life goes on around him everywhere
G D A
He's playing solitaire

D
A little hope
Bm
Aoes up in smoke

Just how it goes
G D A
Aoes without saying

D
There was a man
Bm
A lonely man
Who would command
G D A
The hand he's playing

D
And solitaire's the only game in town
Bm
And every road that takes him
Bm
Takes him down
Em A
And by himself it's easy to pretend
G D A
He'll never love again

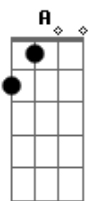

D
And keeping to himself he plays the game
Bm
Without her love
Bm
It always ends the same
Em A
While life goes on around him everywhere
G D A
He's playing solitaire

D
And solitaire's the only game in town
Bm
And every road that takes him
Bm
Takes him down
Em A
And by himself it's easy to pretend
G D A
He'll never love again
