

The Carpenters - Solitaire

Tom: E

E
There was a man
Gb7
A lonely man
Who lost his love
A E
Through his indifference

E
A heart that cared
Gb7
That went unshared
B
Until it died
A E B
Within his silence

E
And solitaire's the only game in town
Dbm
And every road that takes him
Takes him down
Gbm B
And by himself it's easy to pretend
A E B
He'll never love again

E
And keeping to himself he plays the game
Dbm
Without her love
It always ends the same
Gbm B
While life goes on around him everywhere
A E B
He's playing solitaire

E
A little hope
Gb7
Goes up in smoke
B

Just how it goes
A E B
Goes without saying

E
There was a man
Gb7
A lonely man
Who would command
A E B
The hand he's playing

E
And solitaire's the only game in town
Dbm
And every road that takes him

Takes him down
Gbm B
And by himself it's easy to pretend
A E B
He'll never love again

E
And keeping to himself he plays the game
Dbm
Without her love
It always ends the same
Gbm B
While life goes on around him everywhere
A E B
He's playing solitaire

E
And solitaire's the only game in town
Dbm
And every road that takes him

Takes him down
Gbm B
While life goes on around him everywhere
E
He's playing solitaire
