

Carrie Underwood - Just a Dream

Tom: G

It was two weeks after the day she turned eighteen
 All dressed in white, going to the church that night
 She had his box of letters in the passenger seat
 Six pins and a shoe, something borrowed, something blue

And when the church doors opened up wide

She put her veil down
 Trying to hide the tears

Oh she just couldn't believe it

She heard trumpets from the military band

And the flowers fell out of her hands

Baby why'd you leave me

Why'd you have to go?

I was counting on forever, now I'll never know

I can't even breathe

It's like I'm looking from a distance, standing in the background

Everybody's saying, he's not coming home now

This can't be happening to me

This is just a dream

The preacher man said let us bow our heads and pray
 Lord please lift his soul, and heal this hurt
 Then the congregation all stood up and sang the saddest song that she ever heard
 Then they handed her a folded up flag
 And she held on to all she had left of him
 Oh, and what could have been
 And then the guns rang one last shot
 And it felt like a bullet in her heart

Baby why'd you leave me
 Why'd you have to go?
 I was counting on forever, now I'll never know
 I can't even breathe
 It's like I'm looking from a distance
 Standing in the background
 Everybody's saying, he's not coming home now
 This can't be happening to me
 This is just a dream

Oh,
 Baby why'd you leave me, why'd you have to go?
 I was counting on forever, now I'll never know
 Oh, now I'll never know

It's like I'm looking from a distance
 Standing in the background
 Everybody's saying, he's not coming home now
 This can't be happening to me
 This is just a dream
 Oh, this is just a dream

Just a dream
 Yeah, Yeah
