Dm Two black Cadillacs driving in a slow parade Bb
Dm Headlights shining bright in the middle of the day Bb
F One is for his wife C
Dm The other for the woman who loved him at night Bb
F Two black Cadillacs meeting for the first time Dm Bb

And the preacher said he was a good man Dm
And his brother said he was a good friend Bb
But the women in the two black veils didn't bother to cry C G
Bye, Bye Bye, Bye
Yeah they took turns laying a rose down Dm
Threw a handful of dirt into the deep ground Bb
He's not the only one who had a secret to hide C G
Bye bye, bye bye, bye Bye Dm
Two black cadillacs, two black cadillacs Bb

Dm Two months ago his wife called the number on his phone Bb
Dm Turns out he'd been lying to both of them for oh so long Bb
F They decided then he'd never get away with doing this to them C Dm Bb
F Two black cadillacs waiting for the ride down, ride down Dm Bb

Dm And the preacher said he was a good man
Bb And his brother said he was a good friend
C But the women in the two black veils didn't bother to cry G
Bye, Bye Bye, Bye
Dm Yeah they took turns laying a rose down
Bb Threw a handful of dirt into the deep ground
C He's not the only one who had a secret to hide G
Bye bye, bye bye, bye Bye Dm
Yeah yeah Bb

G It was the first and the last time they saw each other face to face Dm C Bb
G They shared a crimson smile and just walked away Dm C Bb
And left the secret at the grave

Dm And the preacher said he was a good man
Bb And his brother said he was a good friend
C But the women in the two black veils didn't bother to cry G
Bye, Bye Bye, Bye Dm
Yeah they took turns laying a rose down Bb
Threw a handful of dirt into the deep ground C
He's not the only one who had a secret to hide Dm Bb
Bye bye, bye bye, bye Bye Dm
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
