

Carrie Underwood - Wasted

Tom: Ab

Ab
Standing at the back door

Ab
She tried to make it fast

Fm
One tear hit the hard wood

Fm
It felt like broken glass

Db
She said sometimes love slips away

Eb
And you just can't get it back

Ab
Let's face it

Ab
For one split second

Ab
She almost turned around

Fm
But that would be like pouring rain drops

Fm
Back into a cloud

Db
So she took another step and said

Eb
I see the way out and I'm gonna' take it

Ab
I don't wanna' spend my life jaded

Ab Fm
Waiting to wake up one day and find

Db
That I've let all these years go by

Ab
Wasted

Ab
Another glass of whisky and it still don't kill the pain

Fm
So he stumbles to the sink and pours it down the drain

Db
He says it's time to be a man and stop living for yesterday

Ab
gotta Face it.

Ab
I don't wanna' spend my life jaded

Ab Fm
Waiting to wake up one day and find

Db
That I've let all these years go by

Ab
Wasted

Ab
Oh I don't wanna' keep on wishing, missing

Fm
the still of the morning' the color of the night

Db
I ain't spending no more time

Ab
Wasted

Fm7
She kept drivin' along

Db
Till the moon and the sun were floating side-by-side

Fm7
He looked in the mirror and his eyes were clear

Fm Eb Db
For the first time in a while

Ab
Hey, yeah,

Ab
I don't wanna' spend my life jaded

Ab Fm
Waiting to wake up one day and find

Db
That I've let all these years go by

Ab
Wasted

Ab
I don't wanna' spend my life jaded

Ab Fm
Waiting to wake up one day and find

Db
That I've let all these years go by

Ab
Wasted

Acordes

