 Intro: Dm Bb C Gm

 Dm Bb Dm F

Lord, what were You saying?
 I must've fallen asleep
 Could've sworn I heard You talking
 Or maybe it was just a dream
 It sounded something like redemption
 An echo from a younger day
 Lord, how long have I been drifting?
 My tears are falling as I pray

Lord, wake up this sleeper
 I lift my head, I lift my head
 Your searchlights found me
 Here at my end, I'm at my end
 ( Bb Dm Bb Dm F )

Is it the fear of falling down again?
 Oh, that keeps me sitting here
 I'd rather wander in the shadows

Than have to look into the mirror
 There's so much madness all around me
 They wear their darkness on their sleeves
 But now my blinded eyes are open
 And I see the darkest part of me

Lord, wake up this sleeper
 I lift my head, I lift my head
 Your searchlights found me
 Here at my end, I'm at my end

Lord, let Your fire make holy these lips unclean
 Shine down in all Your glory, awaken me
 Lord, let Your fire make holy these lips unclean
 Shine down in all Your glory, awaken me

 ( Bb Dm Bb Dm F )

Lord, wake up this sleeper
 Lord, let Your fire make holy these lips unclean
 Your searchlights found me
 Shine down in all Your glory, awaken me, oh-ohhh-ohh
 Lord, let Your fire make holy these lips unclean
 Shine down in all Your glory, awaken me
