Tom: G

m [Intro] Gm7 Bb7 F C

Gm7 Bb7
Theres an old man living in the back of your woods tonight
F C
You forgot he was even there, but you've never slipped his mind
Gm7 Bb7
Hes living off of scraps of you you never knew you left behind
F C
And as the sun goes down, he rises with a smile

Eb
Hes waiting on the night to fall

Bb
The old mans coming to call
F Gm7
You dont see the writing on the wall

Eb
Hell never step out in the light

Bb
No, he's just bidding time

F D
And while you slumber, hes gonna come and take it all

Eb Gm7
Hes waiting on the night to fall

F C Hes waiting on the night to fall

Gm7 Bb7
He knows you have the answers, but truth lies dusty on your shelf

F C
And the sword that you could slay him with has become an ornament and nothing else

Bb7
You could put him back down in his hole in the ground, but he knows you never will

F C
He's been around so long you got used to the smell

Eb
Hes waiting on the night to fall
Bb

The old mans coming to call

F Gm7
You dont see the writing on the wall

Eb
Hell never step out in the light

Bb
No, he's just bidding time

Eb Gm7

F C Hes waiting on the night to fall

Eb
He knows hell never have your soul

Bb
But he will gladly rob you blind

F C
While youre feasting at his table, hell tie your hands and numb your mind

Eb
Hell take you farther than you wanna go

Bb
Hell keep you longer than you wanna stay

F C
And it will cost you more than you ever thought youd pay

Eb
Hes waiting on the night to fall

Bb
The old mans coming to call
