When I was seven I told my mother,
To take me to the bay and put me on a ship.

Silver swordfish electric,
I can feel or dream down here.

If the water should cut my mind,
If the water should cut my life,
If the water should cut my mind,

Set me free,
I don't care,
I want to live in a bathysphere.
(E,C)
When I was seven my father said to me,
"But you can't swim."
And I've never dreamed of the sea again.
(Em,C)
If the water should cut my life,
If the water should cut my line,
(E,C)
If the water should cut my mind,
Set me free,
I don't care,
I want to live in a bathysphere.
