

Catfish And The Bottlemen - Postpone

Tom: G

[Verse 1]

Postpone it and tell 'em life's got you
 And take time off, tell 'em someone needs you
 Tell them all work does is bid you a year
 Before you get out of here

[Pre-Chorus]

To a place that don't sleep
 And the pubs don't shut early
 And your ex will never call
 Never call

[Chorus]

From the minute you regret it
 To the minute you that you let it go
 To the minute you get fed up
 From trying to please everyone
 And the minute you forget that you can pick it up like
 nothing's changed
 And you feel like it all starts falling
 And you feel your luck needs changing
 Cause I'll be there when it all falls

[Verse 2]

Sleep through all the rigmarole
 Your roommates calls every time they fall
 And tell them all love does is bid you a year
 Before you get out of here

[Pre-Chorus]

Em C Em D2

To a place that don't sleep
 And the pubs won't shut early
 And your ex will never call
 Never call

[Chorus]

From the minute you regret it
 To the minute you that you let it go
 To the minute you get fed up
 From trying to please everyone
 And the minute you forget that you can pick it up like
 nothing's changed
 And you feel like it all starts falling
 And you feel your luck needs changing
 Cause I'll be there when it all falls

[Solo]

C C G D x2

And things were never looking up (Oh yeah)
 And we were brought up not to notice

[Chorus]

From the minute you regret it
 To the minute you that you let it go
 And you feel like it all starts falling
 And you feel your luck needs changing
 Cause I'll be there when it all falls
 And you feel like it all starts falling
 And you feel your luck needs changing
 Cause I'll be there when it all falls

Acordes

